

Our 10 December Fine Art and Antiques sale was very successful, with some of the highlights illustrated below.

Lot 561
A diamond bracelet in unmarked white metal
Sold for £15,000

Lot 492
A 1911 gold five pound coin
Sold for £3,000

Lot 167
Heywood Hardy, oil on canvas,
pack of hounds with huntsmen
outside a tavern
Sold for £2,000

The January Fine Art and Antiques auction is scheduled for Thursday, 14th commencing at 10.00am. Amongst the lots in this sale will be a good selection of furniture - with a small collection having a Witley Court provenance, a good array of paintings, 100 lots of Scottish Provincial and other silver and, as is usual, a number of Royal Worcester Porcelain pieces. In addition, there will be an eclectic mix of objects to include a 12 bottle case of 1999 Chateau Lafitte Rothschild, an excellent way to start the New Year.

We have a jewellery valuation day on Monday 4th January – please email or phone for an appointment.

There will be two Interiors sales in February and we will be accepting entries for these after January 14th - please contact the Saleroom for valuation appointments on Monday 18th and Tuesday 19th January.

As has now become the norm, any Saleroom visit - whether to have a valuation, deliver or collect lots, must be by prior appointment.

Finally, and most importantly, we would like to thank you for your support and business during a very difficult year. All of us at the Saleroom would like to wish you a Happy Christmas and a Prosperous and Healthy New Year.

NB - Saleroom Christmas holiday closure from Tuesday 22 December (end of business) – Monday 4th January 2021
