

10 December Fine Art and Antiques Sale set to go ahead

We are very pleased to be able to confirm that our next sale is Thursday 10th of December.

Subject to Government guidance, we will be allowing viewing and attendance at the auction strictly by appointment only. Collection of lots following the auction will also be by appointment only, with all payments to be made by bank transfer, unless previously arranged with Philip Serrell. No card payments can be taken over the telephone. Please note that collection of purchased lots must be made within 7 days of the auction, after which time goods will be moved to our store and kept at the buyer's expense.

Please do not simply appear at the Saleroom without an appointment as unfortunately we will not be able to allow admission. Before entering the Saleroom, we would ask that you wear a mask, sanitise your hands and register with the Track and Trace app provided.

Highlighted lots in our 10 December sale include a Royal Worcester oval porcelain plaque painted with an image of Hampton Court Palace by R Rushton, estimate £1,500 - £3,000, a diamond bracelet, estimate £10,000 - £12,000, and a 17th century stump work panel, estimate £1,000 - £1,200, together with Part 1 of the Turner Collection of Militaria as outlined in our November newsletter. Full catalogue will be available at The Saleroom, Easy Live Auction and www.Serrell.com.

May we take this opportunity to thank you for your support over a difficult 2020, and offer our best wishes to you and your family for a happy and safe Christmas.

Stop Press - our first sale in 2021 will be a Fine Art and Antiques Sale on Thursday, 14 January
