The February auction includes an interesting selection of furniture - some being acquired at the Witley Court Sale of 1938 – together with a good range of paintings, the standout lot being a Parisian view by Edouard Cortes. There is also a good collection of Scottish silver, as well as jewellery, the usual array of signed Royal Worcester Porcelain, and finally - to help with the Lockdown blues - a case of Chateau Lafite Rothschild.

The collection of purchased lots will be via a click and collect system.

Our following auction will be held on Thursday, 18 March, with a number of excellent entries already to hand; if you have items you may be considering selling, please email auctions@serrell.co.uk in the first instance.
